
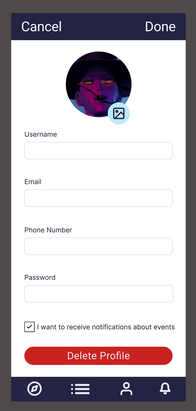
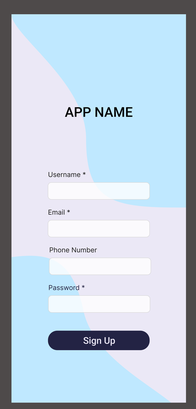
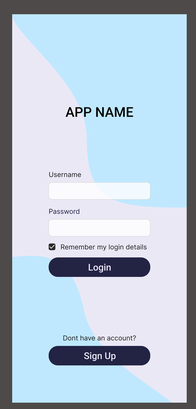
User can scan QR code of event to easily open the event page.



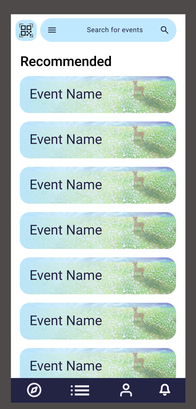
User can update their information. They can also choose to recieve notifications. User can also delete their profile if they choose.



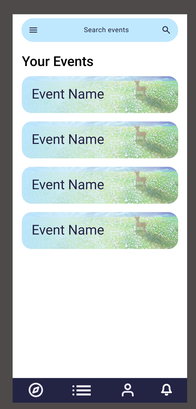
User can enter personal info while signing up



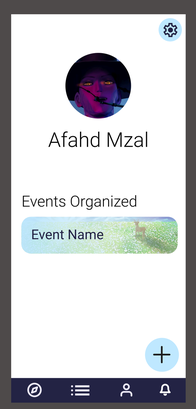
Login page with ability to remember user by their device. User can sign up if they have not



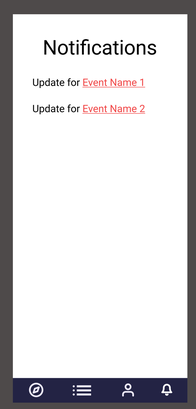
Home page that has recommended events for user to browse. Search bar and filter at the top to find things that align with their preferences. "Compass button" opens this menu.



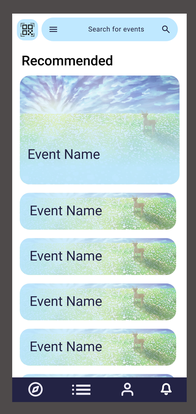
Your Events page shows all events user has registered for. "List button" opens this menu.



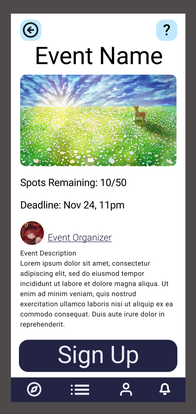
User Profile page shows users profile and events they have organized. They can also create new events from this page. "Profile button" opens this page.



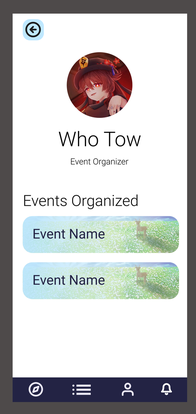
Notifications page shows log of notifications for events, which can be clicked to see your status on the events.



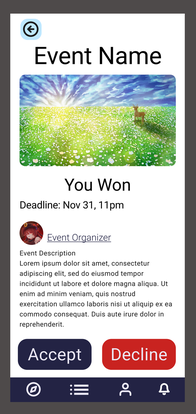
View of expanded event upon click



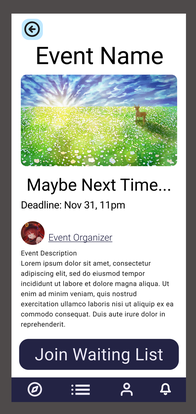
Event details page where user can sign up for the event. Button changes to "unregister" after. Page shows remaining spots, total spots, and question mark button to access guideline information.



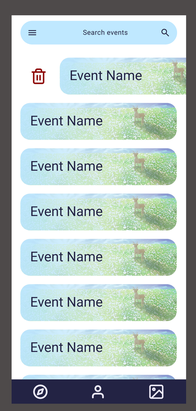
Organizer profile where their events are all shown.



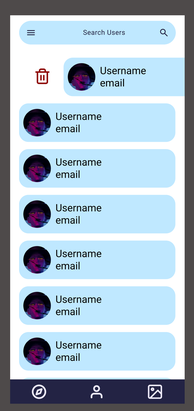
Updated Event details page after user have been selected from the draw. User can accept or decline.



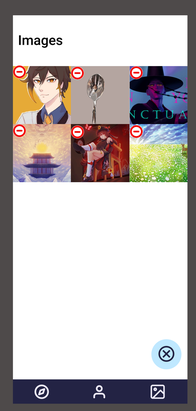
Updated Event details page after user has been not selected in the draft. User can join the waiting list.



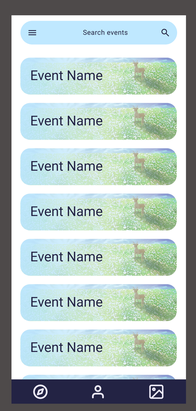
Admin can browse events and swipe to delete them.



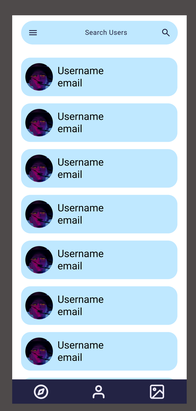
Admin can browse user profiles, and select to delete them. This includes Organizers.



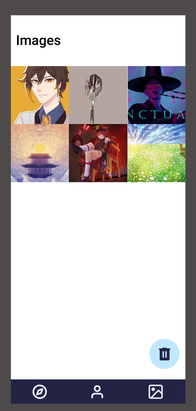
Selecting images to delete them UI.



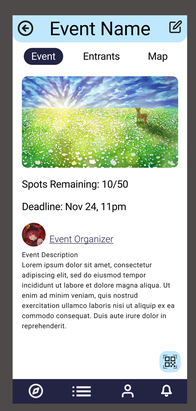
Admin can browse events. Click them to open the details. Swipe to potentially delete as well. They can search and filter.



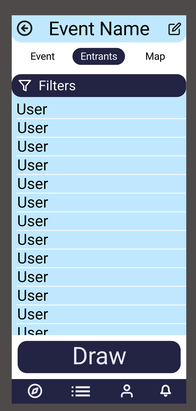
Admin can browse User Profiles. Click them to open the details. Swipe to potentially delete as well. They can search and filter.



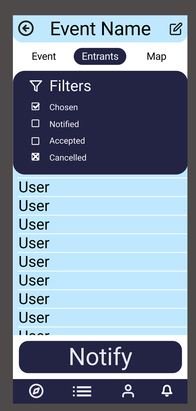
Admin can browse images, and select to delete them.



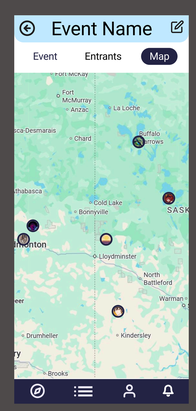
Event details view for the admin. Has event details for them to see. A button in the bottom right for generating a QR code to share. They can look at entrants or the map. Edit button in top right to edit the event details.



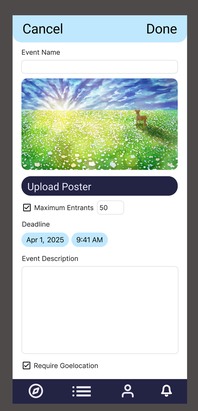
Entrants section has a draw button for selecting your entrants. Organizer can also see a list of entrants.



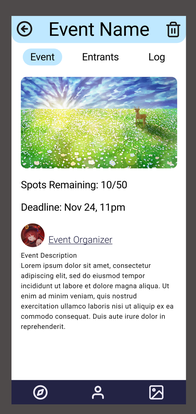
Entrant sections filter allows for selection of chosen, cancelled, and accepted entrants. Notify button on the bottom will notify the filtered group.



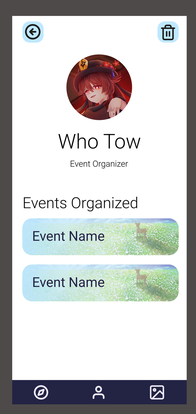
Map section will show all the entrant's location on a map.



Editing event details page for organizer. They can create a deadline. There is also a button to require geolocation. A button to enable maximum entrants. They can also upload an event poster, or update it by uploading another one. This page is for editing events and creating new ones.



Admin can see the event details, including spots remaining, deadline for signup, and event description. They have the option of removing the event using the delete button in the top right corner. They can also see the log screen by pressing the log button beside "Event" and "Entrant"



Admin can remove Organizer accounts by pressing the delete button in the top right corner.